

BY-LAWS OF THE INDIAN EDUCATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR THE NEVADA INDIAN COMMISSION

Introduction:

The Nevada Indian Commission, pursuant to NRS 233A.100, Powers of Commission, is authorized to appoint advisory committees whenever necessary or appropriate to assist and advise the Commission in the performance of its duties and responsibilities. At a meeting duly held on June 20, 2001, the Commission authorized the formation of an advisory committee on Indian Education.

"Committee" defined. Unless the context otherwise requires, "committee" means the Indian Education Advisory Committee.

ARTICLE I - MISSION

The mission of the Committee is to support, promote and assure optimum educational opportunities for American Indian and Alaska Native students in Nevada.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The purpose of the Committee is to advocate for American Indian and Alaska Native students and act as an advisory body to the Nevada Indian Commission.

The Committee is responsible for promoting and supporting an effective and efficient system for early childhood development and a quality education for American Indian and Alaska Native students in Nevada through accountability of basic instruction as well as Johnson O'Malley (JOM), impact aid and other programs. The Committee will educate and inform Tribal Leaders on the importance of early childhood development and Indian Education; inform and educate tribal communities on the importance of early childhood development and Indian Education; ensure a system of coordination and collaboration among tribal early childhood development and Indian Education providers; and communicate the tribal early childhood development and Indian Education voice to the Nevada Early Childhood Advisory Council. The Committee may assist, as requested, in the planning, development, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of appropriate curricula for American Indian and Alaska Native students.

The Committee disseminates information that reflects current legislation, theory, methodology, and practices in Indian education. The Committee also plans sessions with tribal entities, parents, and community members to discuss needs and develop and implement workshops or conferences for early childhood development and Indian education.

The Committee also:

1. Promotes the principles and practices that support the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) in the benefits of education afforded to all other students in the State.
2. Promotes equality to ensure all students including American Indian and Alaska Native students are considered in the delivery of education.
3. Enhances the cultural awareness necessary to ensure American Indian and Alaska Native students are afforded learning opportunities conducive to their learning style and experiences.
4. Advocates to education policy makers on what is needed to improve American Indian and Alaska Native student achievement.
5. Encourages and supports efforts to ensure all American Indian and Alaska Native students meet or exceed the State's achievement standards

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Appointment of members; meetings.

1. Members of the committee shall be selected from among residents, state agencies, tribes, tribal organizations and communities of this state who are familiar with early childhood development and the education of American Indian and Alaska Native children.

General membership shall be appointed by the Advisory Committee

2. The voting members shall consist of members appointed by the Commission upon recommendation of the Advisory Committee is hereby created. The Advisory Committee may consist of a maximum of nine members (See attachment B for examples).
